

Privacy and still be in a neighborhood?

The treasure hunt ends here. Do you want privacy? Here you have one neighbor (with no homes across the street), a platted community of fine homes, paved street, close to town, sunny southern exposure, big lawn backyard, natural area next door.

To find this kind of lot you'd have to drive miles out of town, probably down a gravel road, have no neighbors at all OR trade that for a home on a tiny lot with neighbors on both sides and behind you.

- ✓ Flowing tri-level home, in excellent condition
- ✓ Privacy in a platted community-- only one next door neighbor.
- ✓ Big backyard
- ✓ Open space to east
- ✓ Lawn on your lot and natural habitat next door
- ✓ Across the street is probably unbuildable
- ✓ South facing kitchen and dining area
- ✓ Natural gas FP and heating

This is a hard to find combination. Lock this one up before some one else does.
